Your FAFSA was selected for review in a process called verification. Under the federal student aid program rules (34 CFR, Part 668), we are required to compare the information from your FAFSA with the information provided on this form and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and at least one parent must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the information to the Student Financial Services Office. We may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact Student Financial Services as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed. We cannot process your financial aid until verification has been completed.
