

Richard Rodriguez

Professing Faith in a Post-9/11 World

Thursday, Sept. 29 • 7 p.m.

Mary D'Angelo Performing Arts Center

An elegant writer and master of the personal essay, Richard Rodriguez is acclaimed by the Washington Post as “one of the most eloquent and probing intellectuals in the country.” Rodriguez appears regularly on the PBS NewsHour, and is the author of five books, most notably Hunger for Memory and Days of Obligation. His most recent book, Darling: A Spiritual Autobiography, is dedicated to the Sisters of Mercy who educated him.

This lecture is free and open to the public, and is sponsored by the William C. Sennett Institute for Mercy & Catholic Studies at Mercyhurst University.
