

Mercyhurst College
Assistant Professor of Art Education Vacancy

Mercyhurst College, a Catholic liberal arts institution located in Erie, PA on the shores of Lake Erie in northwest Pennsylvania, invites applications for an assistant professor in the field of Art Education to begin Fall 2012. Candidates should possess a strong background in K-12 art education and be accomplished in and capable of teaching one or more studio areas.

Responsibilities will include undergraduate teaching in the Art and Education Departments, advising of Art Education majors, program development, administrative duties relative to the Art Education Major, a commitment to excellence in teaching, participation in department, college, and professional service and scholarly engagement in the discipline. A terminal degree is preferred.

Applicants should submit cover letter, CV, three letters of recommendation, teaching philosophy, and transcript by mail to Professor Daniel Burke, Chair, Art Department, Mercyhurst College, 501 East 38th Street, Erie, PA, 16546. Completed applications must be received by November 15, 2011.

Mercyhurst is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer that encourages members of diverse groups to apply.