

Mercyhurst College
Assistant Professor of Education Vacancy
Faculty Vacancy starting Fall 2012

Position: Assistant Professor – Education (Fall 2012)

Description: The Education Department at Mercyhurst College invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor to begin Fall 2012. Candidates should possess a strong background in high incidence and learning disabilities. The individual in this position will need to develop and continue established partnerships with local school districts and community agencies, engage in scholarly activities, advise undergraduate students, in addition to other department and college-wide related responsibilities.

Qualifications: Requirements include a doctorate in special education or related field, commitment to excellence in teaching and research promise/accomplishment. Responsibilities will include undergraduate and possibly graduate teaching, professional and public scholarship, student advising and mentoring, participation in department, college, and professional service activities.

Applicants should submit cover letter, CV, three letters of recommendation, teaching philosophy, and transcript by mail to Leanne M. Roberts, Ph.D., Associate Dean, School of Education and Behavioral Sciences, Chair; Education Department, Mercyhurst College, 501 East 38th Street, Erie, PA, 16546. Completed applications must be received by November 1, 2011.

Mercyhurst is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer that encourages members of diverse groups to apply.