

Full Time Learning Styles Coordinator

Provide professional evaluation of learning styles of eligible students, assist students to identify their own style of learning. Interface with their academic and vocational teachers to develop meaningful instructional support and to assist successful completion of eligible students.

Minimum bachelor's degree, preferred master's degree in related field of study: 3-5 years experience with instructional/counseling background preferred.

Primary Responsibilities include:

- Coordinate testing program for purposes of course placement and academic support.
- Interface with various academic and vocational departments to articulate specific learning and insure they are addressed for vocational students.
- Create learning activities that work in concert with classroom activity to support successful completion of all eligible students.
- Develop computer learning lab activities and tutorial support for educational success and program completion.
- Refer students for additional support available through other college offices and community agencies.
- Facilitate academic support to vocational students based on academic tracking reports (mid-term reports).

Location: Mercyhurst North east

Qualified candidates should send their resume in confidence to:

Mercyhurst College

501 East 38th Street

Erie, PA 16546

Attn: Human Resources

Fax (814) 824-2020

Email: hrinfo@mercyhurst.edu

Mercyhurst College is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer that encourages members of diverse groups to apply.