WHY COLLEGE PREP?
Interested in going to college, but not sure if you’re ready? Mercyhurst University’s College Prep Program at the Booker T. Washington Center is the perfect way to get started. These classes, presented in partnership with GECAC, are designed to help you brush up on the basics in core subject areas that all college students need to succeed. So whether it’s been a while since you’ve been in high school – or you just want a little extra time to study before taking the next step – this program can help you gain knowledge and confidence.

COSTS & SUBJECTS
College Prep classes run once per week for 10 weeks at the Booker T. Washington Center. Each course costs $125, which includes books and supplies. Each subject is held on a different night of the week (Monday-Thursday), so you can sign up for as many as you’d like. Plus, if you decide to enroll in a Mercyhurst certificate or degree program afterward, we’ll refund your course fees! College Prep courses focus on these core subject areas:

- READING/Writing: Learn the basics of college-level writing, from essays to research papers.
- Math: Algebra and statistics will be among the areas covered in this beginner-level course.
- Science: This biology and chemistry brush-up is a great choice for students interested in health professions or nursing programs.
- Study Skills: Feel confident about going to college with a review of time management, note-taking and test-taking skills, among other fundamentals.
