INFORMATION:

The 48th Annual Sister Angelica Cummings Scholarship Competition is based on 8-12 digital images of the students high school work. Images should be .jpg format, 150 dpi, no larger than 1024 pixels in the longest direction, and delivered via WeTransfer.com.

ELIGIBILITY:

The competition is open to high school seniors. Each student must submit eight to twelve digital images in any medium. A cross section of art forms is suggested. Award winners must have completed the scholarship application as an art major at Mercyhurst University.

LABELING:

Digital images should be .jpgs placed in a folder and shared through WeTransfer with pstadtmueller@mercyhurst.edu. Images should be .jpg format, 150 dpi, no larger than 1024 pixels in the longest direction. Applicants should name their .jpeg files with the first four letters of their last name and the image number. (EG. Hopp1.jpeg for the first image for an applicant named Hopper). Applicants may choose to place their digital images in a PowerPoint or PDF formatted document. Please focus on the artwork appearing as large as possible without distortion. All entries must include a separate Word document with the following information: name, home address, home telephone number, email address, high school, art teacher's name, student's name, and a numbered list of works, including full title, size of work, and medium.

JURORS:

Members of the Mercyhurst University Art Faculty will serve as jury for the contest. The jurors reserve the right not to award one or more scholarships if the submitted works do not comply with the expected standards of the competition.

CALENDAR:

Portfolios are accepted through January 31st, and scholarships are announced in late February. Should any winner choose not to accept the award, the scholarship can be awarded to the next person in rank. Awards are renewable yearly upon favorable review of the department.

LIABILITY:

Every precaution will be taken to protect submissions. However, the Department of Art and the university are not to be held responsible for any damage or loss that may occur.
