Tenure Track Social Work Faculty Member

Mercyhurst University, a private Catholic liberal arts institution in Erie, Pennsylvania is seeking an Assistant Professor for the Department of Applied Sociology and Social Work.

Qualifications:
Candidates are required to have an MSW (plus two years of post-master’s field experience) from a CSWE accredited program. A Ph.D./DSW is preferred but an MSW with demonstrated teaching ability and five years in the field will be considered (A PhD/DSW is required for tenure track). A demonstrated commitment to social/economic/racial/environmental justice is a minimum qualification, with an ability to prepare students to engage in advocating for systemic reform, in addition to micro level change. Introduction to Social Work; Field, Senior Seminar/Capstone Course; Diversity, Oppression and Social Justice; and Contemporary Social Problems are among potential courses to be taught.

General Responsibilities:
Faculty responsibilities, in addition to teaching and being accessible to students, include coordination of field work, and assisting with academic advising, curriculum development, program evaluation, recruitment of students, and co-advising the department’s student club. Engagement in the professional activities, e.g., presentations at conferences; staying current on issues relevant to social work; and, serving on department, school or university committees is also expected.

The University values diversity. As an Equal Opportunity Employer Mercyhurst University does not discriminate against persons based on race, religion, age, disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, National origin, or sexual orientation.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

To apply:
Provide letter of interest, curriculum vita, and three reference letters to: Jennifer Verga at jverga@mercyhurst.edu.

Candidates must be currently eligible to work in the United States.