Assistant Professor of Organizational Leadership

GENERAL SUMMARY:

Mercyhurst University in Erie, PA, invites applications for a full-time, tenure track position of Assistant Professor of Organizational Leadership in the Walker College of Business to begin in Fall 2022.

Applicants should possess a Ph.D. in content areas that pertain to Organizational Leadership, including but not limited to organizational development or behavior, leadership studies, supply-chain management, corporate administration, or a related discipline. Individuals who are ABD candidates or who possess a master's degree and significant applied experience will also be considered; however, hiring will be at an Instructor level. Regardless of the candidate's specific experience, the search committee is seeking an individual who has a demonstrated record of academic and professional success.

Candidates should be prepared to teach introductory and advanced level online courses in support of the Organizational Leadership graduate program, as well as courses in the applicant's area of expertise that can enhance programs in the Walker College of Business. In addition to teaching excellence, faculty are expected to participate in service to the department, institution, profession, and community. The successful hire will work closely with students, faculty, department chair, and academic support staff. Departmental duties include student advising and recruitment, curriculum development, course and program level learning assessment, research to ensure that course content incorporates leadership trends and developments, and participation in academic committees.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applicants are asked to submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, teaching philosophy with a list of potential courses or teaching interests, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to:
