Visiting Assistant Professor of History

JOB DESCRIPTION

Mercyhurst University is seeking a full-time Visiting Assistant Professor of ancient/medieval world and/or European history in the School of Humanities, beginning Fall 2024. This is a yearly appointment with the possibility for renewal. Requirements: Ph.D. or advanced ABD in ancient/medieval world and/or European history, or a closely related field, with a strong commitment to teaching undergraduates.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Applicants will teach 12 credit hours per semester at the undergraduate level. Contributing to both the History major and the general education curriculum, the successful candidate will teach a range of courses, including World History I, European History I, and classes in their area of specialty. The candidate's specialty may vary within the broad framework of ancient/medieval world and/or European history. Those who can teach courses in both areas will be preferred. Candidates who can contribute to the growth of artificial intelligence or digital humanities initiatives will also be preferred. Demonstrated success in teaching and mentoring undergraduates of diverse backgrounds is especially welcome.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Review of applications will commence immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please submit a cover letter, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, and names and contact information for three references to:
